20 mins

Random acts of kindness are when we are kind to others, for no reason and without even thinking about it. Track random acts of kindness throughout the week. Record them on a list titled “Random Acts of Kindness: Empathy in Action.”

Record anything you see during the week, between any family members / friends / or even people you don’t know, that shows compassion and empathy in action.

You might see it on the weekend, at a party, at school, on TV, at church or at a sporting event.
